France 1-1 Rep of Ire (agg 2-1)

Gallas (right) scored the crucial goal as Ireland appealed for a Henry handball

By Lyle Jackson

The Republic of Ireland suffered cruellest of World Cup exits as France went through with a goal which should have been disallowed for handball.

Thierry Henry clearly handled before playing the ball for William Gallas to score the equaliser which saw France win the play-off 2-1 on aggregate.

The Irish led from the 33rd minute after Republic skipper Robbie Keane shot past Hugo Lloris from 10 yards.
