Christmas Markets in Hamburg

The Santa Pauli Market is for those who don't shock easily: it is held in Hamburg's famous red-light district.

The conference location

More information about these markets and additional venues can be found on the official Hamburg website: http://www.hamburg.com/explore/events/christmas/

The Gänsemarkt Market provides the customary fare of Glühwein and snacks and live music.

On Spitalerstrasse Market the stalls imitate city architecture and offer a wide variety of crafts, food and drink.

The Fleetinsel Market offers a maritime-themed market with two illuminated tall ships.

The Rathaus Market is a traditional market with arts and craft stalls, directly in front of City Hall.

The Alster Market is held on Jungfernstieg with a wonderful view of the Alster.