Rare Books and Manuscripts Section Association of College and Research Libraries A division of the American Library Association

- Harry Ransom Center was founded in 1957 by Harry Hunt Ransom using a collection of rare books that had been acquired from private libraries over the years
- Library, archive, and museum
- Collections include nearly 1 million books, more than 42 million manuscripts, 5 million photographs, and 100,000 works of art.

Why Linked Data for Rare Books?

Looking for sustainability and scalability

- Still experimentation phase at the Ransom Center, but...
- LD4P3 participation
 - BF2MARC conversion
 - Advocacy for Rare Books
 - Feedback to ARM
- Contributing to reusable RDF descriptions
 - PCC Wikidata pilot
- Local discovery tools
 - Testing wikibase

Many thanks!
